YOUNG LADY WHO REIGNED SUPREME

VALUES in Ladies' Tailor-Made Suits—Materials: SERGES, BROADCLOTHS AND GABARDINES.
COLORS: Navy, African Brown, Black and Russian Green.
$25.00 VALUES, for quick selling.......$19.00

THE M. M. WYKES CO.

2335 WASHINGTON AVE.

STANDARD TELEPHONES. For Editorial, News and Society Department, Call Only Phone No.

For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 56.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Good watches 4 Price. 278 25th. Returned-Frank Smyth, state sheep where he took a large shipment of mitteeman from Wyoming, was an Oglambs. Mr. Smyth will depart Monden visitor yesterday. day for the southern part of the state to inspect sheep. office; bring your $1.65 to the office, try the irons for two weeks, if you don't like it bring it back to the office and get your money. The company making this iron received the Panama exposition gold medal for

Mrs. Calvert Improving-Mrs. C. P. Coal, all kinds. M. L. Jones Coal &

Ice Co., 413 24th St. Phone 1603. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Moore are the proud possessors of a ten-pound boy, born at their home, 465 Twenti-

Prospective Phonograph Purchasers cannot afford to overlook the inspection of the Sonora. Awarded first premium for tone quality at World's Fair. Free concert every afternoon Free concert every afternoon | dard eth street, Thursday, September 23.

during Fashion Show week at the LOWE HARDWARE STORE. -At Fifth Ward-President John L Herrick of the Western States Mission will occupy the pulpit at the Fifth ward Sunday, 7 p. m. Special music. All invited. Beatrice Hamill-Post-Teacher of cost. From Evanston-Geo, E. Pexton of inspector, has returned from the east Evanston, national Republican com- Meendrink.

B & G Butter is a luxury at low

New Homes-G. L. Becker, president of the Becker Brewing compa-Electric Fiat Irons—The first con-signment has arrived at the Standard Buren avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Capital avenue, that will cost $10,000. On Twelfth street, between Monroe and Quincy avenue, R. J.

Shaum is building a $2000, residence George Parlow, a clerk in the office of Supt. T. F. Rowlands of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacif-ic, fell through a skylight at the Uni-Calvert of 1217 Twenty-fifth street, on depot building yesterday afternoon who underwent a serious operation at the Dee hospital, is reported to be on his left leg. He was attempting to secure a vantage point from which to view the gyrations of Maroney, the

> A frame house at Porter avenue and Thirty-first street, belonging to Chief of Police W. I. Norton, was almost destroyed by fire early this morning. The damage was estimated at $1500. The origin of the fire is not known.

Ticket to Chicago, cheap if taken at once. Address Ticket, care The Stan-

INDUSTRIAL PARADE VIEWED BY THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE standpoint, Mrs. Lester Hall. 3—For best looking negro baby, Francilla Slocum. 4—For best looking Chinese baby.

(Continued from Page 1)

praise given the cadets for their drilling at the two California expositions has been worthily accorded. The demonstration was further considered one of the biggest features of the Fashion Show and the committeemen were congratulated for having secured the Salt Lake boys as an at-

At noon and for two hours afterward, the barbecue on Hudson ave-nue was the center of attraction. By the time the signal to open the gates was given, approximately 3000 peo-Assisting Mr. Burt were Joseph Streng, S. S. Jensen and P. T. Wright and several members of other committees, a corp of meat carvers, 20 boy scouts and the following ladies: Mesdames R. E. Bristol, Kate Toponce, Arthur Fell, L. T. Dee, Leroy Buchmiller, Emma Winter, Alonzo Romney and the Misses Flora Eccles, Marion Browning, Vera Browning, Ruth Winter, Eva Foutz, Marion Bich-sel, Beverly Riley, Jennette Hawkes and Myra Grout.

The scene was one almost new to the community and the barbecue was largely enjoyed by the crowd. was estimated that upwards of 10,000 persons were served in the two and one half hours, with meat sandwiches, lettuce and pickles. The feast was especially appreciated by the country people and comments to this effect were freely made. Several thousand children were in the crowd and a large number of them pre-empted places in front of the long tables by crawling under the fence and "beating their elders to it." That everyone was satisfied was evidenced by the fact that some of the meat and other eatables was left when the crowd dis-

The Industrial parade was an hour in passing and was made up of representatives from nearly all the large and small industrial concerns of the city, detailed mention of which will be made Monday, as the parade was too late for extended reference to-

persed

Today adverse weather conditions. displayed in a heavy rain lasting for several hours, failed to down the Ogden Harvest Festival spirit to any great degree and the program was curried out as scheduled and even a little better. The rain ceased to fall about 11 o'clock and shortly afterward, though the streets were wet and slippery, the daring charloteers, Ben Hur (Joseph Scowcroft, Jr.) Julius Shakespeare (Hays Mattson) and Count de Cacciac (Luke Wright) essayed a three-block race from Twenty-second street to Twenty-fifth street on Washington avenue. And the city's visitors in large numbers, be it said were on hand to witness the wild

At the call of time, the charioteers bravely clad as in the days of ancient Athens, mounted their decorated charlots (three large steel scrapers) cracked their whips over the backs of their fiery (?) steeds and were With colors flying, the six flying quadrupeds and their drivers drivers ran neck and neck for nearly a block and then Ben Hur pressed slowly but two jumps at once to please his driver, the mule member of the Count's team got overbalanced and fell dragging his traveling companion with him. Fortunately, the Count escaped Fortunately, the Count escaped a like fate and, barring this, the mix-up gave the crowd of onlookers a fair idea of what used to happen in the old days. Meanwhile, Ben Hur and Julius the scores, rain began to fall and Shakespeare were carried swiftly onward, leaving a trail of-no there was no dust, it was too wet-behind them tries. and with a display of strong powers of mental suasion, Julius, the judges declared managed to finish neck and roe avenue; second, Mrs. Tony Vasneck with Ben. The latter claimed sa, 1965 Grant avenue. the victory, declaring that his horses had longer necks, but this was not sallowed. allowed.

The Fashion Queen (Miss Lillian Wright), Mrs. R. E. Bristol and Miss Madeline Brinkhouse greeted the winners and the two former pinned time the signal to open the gates given, approximately 3000 peowere waiting to partake of the Bristol and Miss Brinkhouse then hospitality of the Fashion Show and Harvest Festival fraternity, dispensed under the direction of Chairman T. G. Burt, whose name will be long house pinned her colors on the down hearted Count. The race was dehair, Mrs. J. P. Arnold, 485 Twenty-> when the attention of the pleasureseekers was drawn upward and many necks were strained in attempting to tendant, Mrs. C. R. Clark. follow the gyrations of Maroney, the aviator, who was taking a morning spin over the city in his aeroplane Maroney also made a successful flight yesterday afternoon, his evolutions creating great interest. scheduled to make a third flight this afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock.

SHOW AWARDS FOR THE PRIZE BABIES

So elaborate and complete was the Pashion Show program yesterday that there was something of interest dong all the time.

No feature was of greater interest than the baby show, and through the able management of Judge A. G. Horn and associates every detail was carrled out. All bables were taken care of and none left the exhibit grounds at the City hall without recognition of merit, and the mothers were made glad. Every child was given a box of candy, compliments of surely to the front amid the plaudits the Shupe-Williams Candy company, of the multitude. Scenting possible and many of them were given sub-defeat, Count de Cacciac whipped up stantial prizes, according to merit in his steeds and in attempting to make their respective classes. Two lov-two jumps at once to please his driving cups were given to the two best babies, judged on general points, one above a year of age and under two othe other under a year old.

Best Baby Over One Year JOYCE HALL Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall Barbecue Big Success.

However, things did not move along as smoothly as desired, but it was weather man. Before the judges third, Mrs. J. C. Stephens, 672 Sulli-could complete the work of making the scores, rain began to fell and it became necessary to find shelter for the bables and their mothers. The city hall was turned into a nursery and the kiddles were cared for, Judge Reeder adjourned the municipal court to give way to the assembly of bables. The rooms occupied by the city commissioners were turned over to Judge Horn and it was only a short time before the work of classification and examination was again fication and examination was again

As a precautionary measure in case of sudden illness of any of the little ones, Drs. Walter E. Whalen and C. K. MacMurdy, accompanied by the Misses Phillips Nelson and Clara Morris, professional nurses from the Dee hospital, were in attendance.

The baby judges were Judge A. G. Horn, Professor F. M. Driggs, F. W. Taylor, John Culley, Arthur Kuhn, A. R. McIntyre, and the Mesdames Thomas Carr, C. A. Day, Edward Bichviolin; for convenient period, 'phone 1686-M. Studio, 2343 Adams.

Genealogy—Alvin S. Smith of Salt Lake will speak on genealogical work at the Eighth ward tomorrow at 7:30 p. m.

Thomas Carr, C. A. Day, Edward Bichsel, W. D. Brown, A. G. Horn, I. L. Reynolds, J. A. Dunn, C. A. Boyd, Ezra Rich, F. E. Nichols, E. W. Herrington, E. M. Rowe, J. H. Spargo, W. G. Dalrymple, John Culley, S. W. Badcon and O. M. Runyon.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Prizes were awarded as follows: Class one, bables over one and under two:

1-For best Dutch baby, Mrs. B. 2-For best baby from every

Most Beautiful Baby LOUIE HODGSON, Four Months' Old Son of Leslie Hodg-

5-For best looking Japanese baby, first, Mrs. E. Kanno, R. F. D. 3; sec Mrs. Kiku Tamaki, 441 Eighteenth street. 6-For best looking papoose, no en-

7-For best looking Italian boy, first, Mrs. A. C. Androzzi, 3031 Mon-

9-For blackest haired baby, Mrs. A. N. Tilloni.

10-For loudest crying babies, no entries. For best dimpled babies, Mrs. O. D. Van Batenburg, 3204 Wyoming, 12-For three bables with lightest colored hair, first, Mrs. Ed Wright, Canyon road; second, Mrs. Carl Roshen, 115 Thirty-first street; third, Mrs. George Burt, 159 West Twentythird.

14-For neatest dressed baby, Mrs. Ed Brown 2042 Ouincy avenue For baby with homeliest father, Lou Lofgren. Canyon road.

16-For baby attended by oldest at-

Best Baby Under One Year ROBERT LESLIE WEST, 652 Twenty-eighth Street.

17-For first baby appearing in contest, registered number 128 name not given by judges. 18-Fattest baby girl, no entries.

19-Fattest baby boy, Woodruff Pe terson. 20—German baby, no entries.

21—Baldest baby, no entries. 22—Tallest baby, Mrs. C. W. Kendall, 4 Avon apartments.

-Smallest baby, no entries. 24-For three most beautiful bables, first, Mrs. M. Wilson; second Mary A. Adams, 2717 Quincy; third, Marjorie Coffin. 25-For baby attended by neatest attendant, Mrs. Josh Grant. Class Two. For bables under one year of age: 1—For best Dutch baby, Mrs. W Dalebout, 803 Twenty-seventh street. 2-For best baby from every standpoint, Robert West, 652 Twenty-eighth street. 3-For three most beautiful bables, first, L. S. Hodgson, 2255 Madison; second, Mrs. D. F. Schwartz, 255 Twenty-seventh street; third, Mrs. Higgins, 511 Twenty-sixth street. 4-For blackest haired babies, no entries Three prizes. 5-For three best dimpled babies, Mrs. J. C. Stephens, 672 Sullivan avenue; second, Mrs. L. H. Leavitt, 571 man, 234 West Thirtleth street. 6—For loudest crying baby, Violet Johansen, one of a pair of twins.

7-For baby with lightest colored hair, Mrs. W. P. Umberger, 2329 Jackson avenue. 8-For bables with heaviest head of hair, first, Mrs. G. C. Chandler, 2746 Adams avenue; second, Mrs. J.

9-For neatest dressed baby, Mary creation of embroidered white taffeta ed with a bow of white tulle and a plumes and set off with black velvet with long court train and filmy lace beautiful black hat with white plumes streamers. Each of the maids carwith long court train and filmy lace and silver net overdress. quisite crescent crown set with brilliants and a beautiful white aigrette rested with queenly effect on her dark brown hair. The royal robe of pink velvet and ermine completed the lovely costume and set off most effectively the fair beauty of Ogden's popular Fashion Show queen.

-Photo by E. Grey Freemonde. OGDEN'S FASHION SHOW QUEEN, MISS LILLIAN WRIGHT.

The four malds of honor were beautifully and appropriately gowned and made a most charming back ground for her royal highness,

Miss Alberta Wright was an attrac willow taffeta with beaded lace trim ming, a dainty white maline throw

Ethel Packard, 1637 Hudson avenue. 10-Baby with homeliest father, no entries.

11-For the three fattest baby boys first, Mrs. J. P. Harrop; second, Mrs. A. J. Parker, West Weber; third, Mrs. H. L. Peterson, 104 Harrisville road. 12-For fattest baby girl, first, Mrs. J. A. Madson, 2351 Quincy; second. Mrs R. H. Thompson, Riverdale, third, not awarded. 13-For baldest baby, Mrs. C. P. Nelson, East Twelfth street. 14-For three tallest babies first, Mrs, C. W. Jackson, 3159 Porter avenue; second. Mrs. L. R. Woodbury. 2022 Adams avenue; third, Mrs. R. H. Thompson, Riverdale road. 15-For three smallest babies, first, Mrs. G. E. Lowther, 279 Twenty-sev-enth street; second, Mrs. J. C. Marriott, West Weber; third, Andrew De-

Heer, 2325 Lincoln avenue. 16-For three bables with darkest eyes, first, Mrs. Oscar Stevens, 1538 Twenty-fifth street; second, Mrs. R. Brown, West Second street; third, Mrs. N. A. Bennett, 226 Thirtieth street eyes, first, Mrs. C. P. Nelson, East Twelfth street; second, Mrs. C. E. Littlefield, 314 Patterson avenue; third, Mrs. Hyrum Williams, 2948 Pingree avenue.

Class C.

1-Triplets, none entered. 2-For every pair of twins a bank account will be given. Eight pairs were entered. Mrs. W. Johanson. 171 Harrisville road; Mrs. Nellie Phil- mer adjournment, and was one of the lips, 3058 Ogden avenue; Mrs. L. Far-ley, 528 Twenty-fourth street; Mrs. Westback, 3155 Quincy; Mrs. Gilles, Cross street; third, Mrs. W. A. Wad- 432 Twenty-second street; Mrs. David dorsed. DeGroot, 161 Patterson; Mrs. L. Wessler, 18 Riverdale road; Mrs. F. C. Marriott, West Weber.

Class D. Prizes were offered by B. F. Reednan of Salt Lake for the reddest haired triplets and twins; in case neither hand-tinted cards, des were entered the prize was to go to lowing guests' places: the reddest haired baby under years; it was awarded to Mrs. Walter Clark, 524 First street, most delightful ever held. A short business meeting was held and a number of rules for the club en-The Reed parlors were especially beautiful with fall flowers and ferns prettily arranged, as was also the adding to the effectiveness of the ried a staff tied with a tulle bow and costume. wore a dainty white maline throw Miss Rae Wright wore a dainty shade of pink taffeta and silk net. Her hat was of black and white velvet beautifully with her gown. Miss Beatrice Brewer wore a love white gown with gold lace trimming, and a dainty pale green velvet bolero. Her hat of black velvet and bolero. gold cloth with gold plumes, daintily tipped with green, added the final ouch to her costume.

Miss Leila Rich wore a strikingly pretty costume of opal blue pussy wil-

ow taffeta trimmed with white lace were offered by Burt's but no entries were made.

Society

LADIES' LITERARY SOCIETY The Ladies' Literary society held easant meeting at the home of Mrs. I. Douglas Watson, 3156 Washington wenue, Wednesday afternoon, owing an interesting program of literary numbers, the hostess served re-

MARTHA SOCIETY MEETING. The Martha society held a business neeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, 2536 Adams avenue, last Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The oming big event of the winter season -the Charity ball-was discussed and plans and business matters pertaining to the Martha society 17—For three babies with bluest has the care of 46 children, 32 of whom sleep at the home. The society will meet with Mrs. A

P. Gibbs, Monday, October 4. MRS. H. C. BIGELOW HOSTESS.

The Five Hundred club ladies were he guests of Mrs. H. C. Bigelow at the Reed hotel parlors Thursday af-ternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This was he first meeting, following the sum-fining room, where a five-course luncheon was served. Fall flowers in vases adorned the tables and dainty a. m., the following being in attendhand-tinted cards, designated the fol-

Mesdames M. S. Browning, Chapin For the reddest haired babies un-der one year and under two years Dr. Ezra Rich, James H. Spargo, Jo- Bray. Messrs. Lester Swanner, How-over the shoulders. The sweet little pages in full court dress were by no means the least in by the queen and her attendants.

Each of the maids car-with old rose tips in a shade to blend the exquisitely pretty picture made Miss Norine Scudder and Miss Dor othy Madson were the creators of the beautiful hats worn by the maids of honor.

Following the festivities last evenwere the guests at a beautifully appointed dinner party given in honor by the Fashion Show commit-

ing, the queen and her attendants seph Scowcroft, E. L. Van Meter W. D. W. Zeller, Richard B. Porter, Thomas D. Dee, Alex Walker, H. H. Spener. New members of the club were Mrs. E. O. Wattis, Mrs. William Wattis, Mrs. Joseph Wright and Mrs. H.

Several games of 500 were enjoyed and honors were received by Mrs. H. H. Spencer, Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald and The club will hold meetings every

L. Bell.

FOR OCTOBER BRIDE-TO-BE.

Misses Marian and Vera The Browning entertained at Kensington Tuesday afternoon in compliment to Miss Josephine Wallace, whose mar-riage to John W. Wallace, October 20. Following a pleasant hour at nee dlework the hostesses served luncheon.

Tuesday evening Miss Marvel Childs entertained members of her ewing club in honor of Miss Wal-

AT SEATTLE. Samuel C. Powell has gone to Se attle on a business and pleasure trip.

RETURN TO CHEYENNE. W. Petry and J. Watson of Chey-nne, Wyo., returned to their bome vesterday after spending a pleasant acation in Ogden.

One of the most pleasant surprise parties of the week was one given Vird C. Garner, son of Assistant Postmaster Garner at Mr. Garner's home 3070 Washington avenue. sion being in honor of Mr. Garner's birthday.

After partaking of a nicely appoint ed supper a program of music and games were indulged in until 1:30 ance

Edith Swanner, Olive Parry, Lillian Larson, Marie Denkers, Janette Rus-A. Day, Harold Day, William H. Eccles, P. Healy, Ambrose P. Hibbs, R. Peterson, Geneva Marriott, Helen

ard Swanner, Ed. Thomas, E. W. Collins, George Critchlow, W. H. Had-lock, Heber Swanner, Jack Checketts, Cordon Thompson, Heber Swanner, Vird C. Garner.

DURING THE TWO-DAY FESTIVITES

Mr. Vird Garner was the recipient of a beautiful gold-headed umbrella bearing his initials and date presented him, by Miss Edith Swanner.

SURPRISE PARTY. A surprise party was given Wednes-day evening in honor of James Wagner at his home, 303 Twentieth street.
The evening was spent in playing cards and social chat. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Hyrum Preece and Mrs. Moore. The Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen presented Mr. Wagner with a set of sold cutt lines. with a set of gold cuff links. A dainty luncheon was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hants. Mr and Mrs. Hyrum Preece, Mr. and Mrs. Art Moore, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. William Light, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Rose Day, Mrs. Mary Hales, Mrs. Lillie Gaucher, Mrs. George Mosler, Mrs. S. P. Miller and James Wagner.

SHOWER FOR JEAN COLE.

A shower was given Wednesday night at the home of Miss Carrol Engstrom on Orchard avenue in honor of Miss Jean Cole, an October bride-to-be. Musical numbers by Miss Madeline Lauzon, and Miss Winnifred Hutchings and Sames furnish nifred Hutchinson, and games furnished the entertainment for the guests. Dainty refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

Mrs George H. Matson acted as hostess to the Child Culture club, Thursday afternoon at the Maids' and Matrons' club rooms, which were very prettily decorated with asters.

The club had as its guests two no-ted club women of Denver, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Hopkins and from Ogden Mrs. J. M. Bishop, Mrs. William Douglass, Mrs. A. B. Corey, Miss Ruby Cook, Miss Foss, Miss Edna Towne, Miss Katherine Hoag, Mrs. Matson was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mildred Runyon and Miss Mary Virginia Matson. Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Kirkendall and Mrs. Mills presided at the tea table. An especially pleasant fea-ture of the afternoon's entertainment was the vocal selection given by Miss Katherine Hoag who has recently re-turned from Boston where she completed a musical course at the La Salle seminary.

MRS. FARR RETURNS. Mrs. John Farr and daughters Mildred and Afton returned today from a six weeks' tour of California. They visited both expositions and other points of interest during their trip.

Ella Hall, Bob Leonard, Cleo Madison, Eddie Lyons and Victoria Forde, all stars at the Lyceum Sunday and Monday.

MUSICAL SERVICES AT CONGREGATIONAL

"Send Out Thy Light," a song of Gounod is the selection to be ren-dered by the Congregational choir, Sunday night. It is the aim of Pro-fessor Hammer, who conducts the chorus to present characteristic music from the different great composers. Gound was a Frenchman, his most famous work being the grand opera "Faust." Much of his talent was directed toward religious compositions and many of the great songs of the church are his. In addition to this chorus, Mrs. Dalrymple will sing. "Teach Me to Pray," written by Jes-sie May Jewett, and E. L. Howes will render, "Open Ye the Gates of the Temple," by Knapp. These evening services at the Congregational church are open to everyone and are being made very attractive. The subject of the evening sermon wil be "The Loss in Being Una-

The Alhambra runs continuously till midnight tonight.

The Alhambra runs continuously till midnight tonight.

Deaths and Funerals

WELSHANS-Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Welshans, wife of Joseph L. Welshans, died at 12:45 a. m. today at the hospital of arterio-sclerosis. Mrs. Welshans was born at New London, Ohio, December 26, 1842, and was the daughter of George and Sarah James Boyd. Funeral will be held Sunday at 3 p. m., at the Lindquist parlors, Rev. John Edward Carver presiding. The body may be viewed at the parlors from 10 a.m. Sunday until time of funeral. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

FARR—Funeral services for Lo-tenzo Farr will be conducted by Bishop E. A. Olsen in the Fourth ward meeting house tomorrow at 1 p. m. Friends may be viewed at the Lindquist chapel tomorrow from 11 to 12 o'clock. Interment City cemetery.

FARR-Margaret Williams Farr, wife of David Farr, dled at 2:15 p. m. today at the family residence, 346 Twentieth street. Mrs. Farr had been a sufferer for many years. Fun services will be announced later.

18-Piece Brass Band on the Alhambra Marquess from 9 to

BASEBALL

TODAY'S GAMES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston: St. Louis000 002 000-2 4 Batteries — Hamilton and Severold, Agnew; Foster and Cady.

Read the Classified Ads. (Continued on Page 10.)